Full bio

Alana Nicky Chelangat is a Kenyan student, climate justice advocate, author and podcaster who believes children belong at the centre of climate decisions. She founded Dunia Endelevu, a platform where children and young people learn about climate change and take action, and hosts Climate Gumzo with Alana, a podcast that turns big climate ideas into language young audiences understand. Her book, Alana's Magical Adventure at Mazingira Park, opens the Climate Action Adventure Series. Alana was a keynote speaker at COP28 in Dubai, spoke on a children's rights panel at COP29 in Baku, and gave a keynote at the 3rd International Conference on Child Protection in Africa in Nairobi. She is a Young Advisor to University College Cork's Youth Climate Justice project and a member of YOUTHTOPIA's Circle of Youth.
